

House Group Passes Full Arms Aid Plan

Europe Must Use Arms As U.S. Wishes

Washington, Aug. 15—(AP)—The house foreign affairs committee approved tonight, without any fundamental change, the administration's $1,450,000,000 arms aid program to bolster foreign nations against any Russian aggression.

Chairman Kee (D-WVA) did not announce the vote but said there was "a sufficient majority." Other members said the bill was approved by a margin of three to one.

It will go to the House floor perhaps Wednesday.

The bill includes the $1,160,990,000 requested for arming North Atlantic pact nations.

Ties String To Program
But the committee tied a string to the program to make sure that the non-communist western European nations set up mutual defense plans satisfactory to the United States.

The committee voted to make half the $1,160,990,000 available in cash, and give the president authority to enter into contracts covering the rest.

But the members, by a reported 10 to 9 vote, directed that use of both cash and contract authority shall end on next March 31 unless the president certifies to congress that the United States has approved of mutual defense plans worked out by the defense command of the Atlantic pact nations.

During hearings, legislators had raised questions whether the United States could be assured that European nations would see eye to eye on defense plans and would cooperate fully. Administration spokesmen expressed firm belief they would so cooperate.

Turn Down China Aid
The committee, whipping the bill into shape for possible House consideration this week, turned down an attempt by Rep. Lodge (R-Conn.) to make $200,000,000 available for non-communist China.

However, it expressed hope unanimously that non-communist nations of the Far East will work out a pact, with U. S. cooperation, for mutual development and defense.

In the Senate, Senators Vandenberg (R-Mich) and Dulles (R-NY) formally proposed broad restrictions on the arms program, saying such curbs wouldn't delay the program at all.

They sought to slash $160,990,000 off funds for the pact nations, leaving $1,000,000,000 which they would split into half cash and half contract authority. Also they would fit this part of the arms aid into any defense plan accepted by this country under the North Atlantic treaty.

Split Funds Thusly
The House committee split the funds for Atlantic pact nations this way:

Cash: $498,130,000 for use up to next March 31, and $167,110,000 between then and June 30.

Contract authorization: $428,100,000 up to March 31 and $77,050,000 from March 31 to June 30.

The committee then moved on to consider funds for other countries in the bill—Greece, Turkey, Iran, Korea and the Philippines. All told the administration has asked $1,450,000,000 for the whole undertaking.

The changes Vandenberg and Dulles proposed in the Senate would not affect funds for Greece, Turkey, Iran, Korea and the Philippines.

The 25 members of the Senate committee on foreign relations and armed services, acting jointly, will begin tomorrow putting together a bill for Senate consideration.

Sparks Fly As Debate On Power Opens In Senate

Washington, Aug. 15—(AP)—Sparks flew in the Senate today as it opened debate on a $590,000,000 bill, part of which would finance building of government-owned power lines in the western areas of the country.

Opponents claimed the proposal was a step toward "nationalization of electricity" in the United States. But its backers said rejection of the plan would mean a reversal of the nation's public power policy and give private utilities a "monopoly."

The argument stemmed from the action of the Senate appropriations committee in cutting the power line item out of the interior department's appropriation after the House had approved the funds. The money originally was earmarked for use in construction of transmission lines in certain sections of the west, northwest and southwest.

Senator Elmer Thomas (D-Okla.) urged his colleagues to back the appropriations committee and turn down the proposal.

Steel Says It Will Lose If Wages Hiked

New York, Aug. 15—(AP)—Four "Little Steel" companies testified today they will either lose money or have to hike prices on a falling market if they raise steel workers' wages now.

A steel industry expert also said a new pay increase would harm both labor and industry now that inflation has abated.

The companies are Allegheny Ludlum Steel Corp., A. M. Beyers Co., Lukens Steel Co., and the Colorado Fuel and Iron Co.

They testified before a presidential three-man fact-finding board set up to avert a nation-wide steel strike.

The board allotted eight days to each side's case.

The union testified last week, reserving some time for rebuttal, and the industry has completed three days.

All four of the small steel companies said the CIO Steelworkers union has under estimated the cost of its "package" of wage, pension and insurance benefits.

The union claims it will cost 30 cents an hour, while company estimates today ran from 40 to 65 cents an hour.

Two of the companies also said they could not absorb such an increase, and two others said they actually would lose money.

Earlier today Jules Backman, associate professor of economics at New York university, supported steel's case in an industry-wide survey.

"The period of easy acceptance of higher wage costs, with their accompanying high prices in many cases, ended with the abatement of inflationary pressures," he said.

The three-man board, headed by Prof. Carroll B. Daugherty of Northwestern university, will make findings of fact and recommendations in its report to President Truman on the contract dispute between the union and the industry. The report is due Aug. 30, but its findings are not binding.

SHEAN TRADE-MARK TO BE ON TOMBSTONE

New York, Aug. 15—(AP)—The trade-mark line — "Absolutely, Mr. Gallagher? Positively, Mr. Shean" — that Al Shean helped make famous in life will be inscribed on his tombstone.

Lawrence Shean, son of the 81-year-old actor disclosed today that the famed trouper had directed this epitaph to be placed on the stone:

"Born May 12, 1868. I could have lived longer, but now it's too late. Absolutely, Mr. Gallagher? Positively, Mr. Shean."

Shean, who died Friday, was buried today after services at Riverside Memorial Chapel.

Temperatures Near Normal In Most Of Nation Monday

Chicago, Aug. 15—(AP)—Showers and thunderstorms wet down a good part of the nation today. Temperatures were near normal, except for a hot belt in the northern plains and Great Lakes areas.

Ellington, Ind., 48 miles south of Terre Haute, got a drenching it won't soon forget. A cloudburst brought an estimated 11 inches of rain there within 10 hours.

Other rain fell from the Virginias westward to the Ohio Valley; in the middle Gulf states; in the central Rockies, and in northwestern Washington.

Generally fair weather was the rule elsewhere.

Charge Murder As Man Kills Woman Instead Of Wife

Hamilton, Ill., Aug. 15—(AP)—The state's attorney said today he will charge James E. Husband, 43, with murdering a woman carnival worker with a bullet intended for his wife.

Hundreds of persons along the midway of Mirth Shows string of tents witnessed the fatal shooting Saturday night.

Victim of the shooting was Mrs. Jackie Lavell Tankersley, 30, of Paducah, Ky., a concessionaire who innocently stepped into the line of fire. State's attorney Tucker Kimball of Hancock county gave this account:

A quarrel began between Mrs. Esther Husband, 48, owner of the carnival, and her husband about 8 p.m. When Husband began firing at her she dodged through the crowd of merry-makers in an attempt to escape.

One bullet killed Mrs. Tankersley and another wounded Mrs. Husband in the right hip. Attendees at a Keokuk, Ia., hospital reported her condition as good today.

DISCUSS SMALLER BUDGET FOR MILITARY

Washington, Aug. 15—(AP)—A smaller budget for the military establishment is under discussion for the fiscal year starting next July 1. Secretary of Defense Johnson disclosed today.

How much smaller, he declined to say.

The military budget Mr. Truman sent to congress in January called for $14,288,000,000 for the present fiscal year. However, defense appropriations now awaiting action in congress total about $13,900,000,000.

Hawaii Rulers Gets Injunction To Stop Pickets

Honolulu, Aug. 15—(AP)—The Hawaiian government obtained a circuit court injunction today restraining the striking CIO International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's union from picketing the pier of the freighter Hawaiian Merchant.

The injunction was part of the government's showdown drive to open the territory's strikebound ports by providing its own stevedore service.

Hawaii's business has been crippled by a 107-day-old strike of about 2,000 stevedores of the CIO International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's union. They demand a 32-cent raise in their $140 hourly wages.

In an effort to end the sea blockade the territorial government has set itself up in the stevedoring business under a special law.

Having seized the facilities of the seven struck stevedoring firms and hired its own longshoremen, the government today chose the Matson freighter Hawaiian Merchant for its first unloading. It immediately ran into a snag.

U.S. Ambassador Meets With Stalin In Courtesy Visit

Moscow, Aug. 15—(AP)—U. S. Ambassador Alan G. Kirk met tonight with Prime Minister Stalin in the Kremlin.

It was the first meeting between the new American envoy and the Soviet leader.

The call was described at the U. S. embassy as a "courtesy visit." Kirk arrived in Moscow at the end of June.

The new British ambassador, Sir David Kelly, who came to Moscow shortly before Kirk, called on Stalin June 18. This also was described as a "courtesy visit."

Tonight was the first time the 61-year-old American ambassador had ever met Stalin. It was also the first time an ambassador or any high American official had seen the Soviet leader in almost a year.

The last time such a meeting was held was Aug. 23, 1948, when Stalin received U. S. Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith along with the British and French envoys during four-power talks on Germany.

It was learned officially that Kirk had requested today's meeting.

The question of the quality of the freezers came up Saturday.

Maj. Gen. Harry Vaughan, President Truman's military aide, said in a statement that the seven freezers had been given to him in 1945, and that he had kept one and sent the others to friends.

One went to the "Little White House" in Independence, Mo.

Vaughan said the bill was paid by friends of his—officials of the Albert Verley Co., a Chicago perfume house.

It was his understanding, Vaughan said, that the freezers were experimental models of no commercial value.

But Albert J. Gross of Milwaukee, who assembled and shipped the units, and Robert Quirk, vice president of a Cudahy, Wis., company which makes freezer cabinets, denied this today.

They first were heard in a closed session, by the Senate Investigations subcommittee, which started all this by deciding to look into the activities of "five percenters"—men who try to help land government contracts in return for a percentage fee.

Answers Reporters
Later Quirk and Gross answered reporters' questions.

"Yes," said Quirk, "the cabinets had commercial value. They were good cabinets," he said.

"Yes," said Gross, "the freezers were in demand at the time."

"They were of wartime, substitute materials, but everybody wanted them, whether they were made of mud, or brick, or what," Gross said.

"We did have trouble with them because they were of war materials, but they were the best obtainable at the time."

McCarthy made his comment on Mrs. Truman in a statement at today's hearing.

"There is nothing in the record," he said, "suggesting that there was anything even remotely improper on the part of Mrs. Truman."

And McCarthy added:

"I don't think she knew anything about the perfume company's connection with John Maragon."

"I am sure, for example, she knew nothing about the attempted smuggling activities on the part of an employee of the company."

Of those recorded today, 13 were from Madison and 10 from Effingham county. Smaller numbers of outbreaks were reported by 22 other counties.

Marion county and Centerville remained the state's No. 1 trouble spot. The number of polio victims there stood at 99 with three fatalities.

16TH POLIO DEATH
Springfield, Ill., Aug. 15—(AP)—John E. Redden, 22, of Springfield, died in St. John's hospital here today of polio. His death was the 16th recorded polio fatality for Springfield this year.

Maryland Anti-Subversive Law Thrown Out By Circuit Judge

Baltimore, Aug. 15—(AP)—A Maryland circuit judge today threw out the state's law against people who join or work with subversive organizations.

Judge Joseph Sherbow of Baltimore held that the state cannot punish a person for what he thinks.

It was the first court test of a new law which required loyalty oaths by public employees and candidates for office. The law set up heavy fines and prison sentences for belonging to a subversive organization.

Attorney General Hail Hammond said he will move promptly for a review by Maryland's court of appeals at Annapolis. He saw the possibility the case will go ultimately to the supreme court of the United States.

"The supreme court," Judge Sherbow said in his opinion, "has made it clear that laws may punish acts and conduct which clearly, seriously, and imminently threaten substantive evils."

"They may not intrude into the realm of ideas, religious and political beliefs, and opinions."

"The law deals with overt acts, not thoughts. It may punish for acting, but not for thinking."

The legislation took effect April 22.

Anyone actively engaged in subversive activities became liable to 20 years in prison and a $20,000 fine. Five years and a $5,000 fine were provided for just being a member of an organization found to be subversive.

The law did not specifically ban the Communist party. Its preamble said communism is a treacherous, world-wide conspiracy that fits the definition of subversive activity.

Anything which aims at the overthrow of our governments by force was deemed subversive.

Judge Sherbow said the Ober law is too general.

It violates the first, fifth and fourteenth amendments of the federal constitution, he declared, as well as the state constitution and case.

Maryland's declaration of rights. He added:

"As stated by Justice Jackson (in a West Virginia case before the supreme court):

"If there is any fixed star in our constitutional constellation it is that no official, high or petty, can prescribe what shall be orthodox in politics, nationalism, religion, or other matters of opinion or force citizens to confess by word or act their faith therein."

The Ober law was brought to test by six college professors, a psychiatrist, a physician, a salesman and a sculptor. They were into court asking an order to prohibit 71 state officials and police authorities from enforcing the law.

Judge Sherbow's ruling has the effect of invalidating the law, at least until the court of appeals, Maryland's highest tribunal, considers the case.

The Communist party of Maryland filed a similar action. Judge Sherbow entered the same ruling in that case.

Frankfurt, Germany, Aug. 15—(AP)—A scholarly politician and an author were in line today to head the west German republic as a result of the Sunday election victory of anti-Socialist parties.

Tall, lean Konrad Adenauer, 73-year-old chairman of the Conservative Christian Democrats, loomed as the natural choice for chancellor, a position equivalent to prime minister.

Theodor Heuss, 65, author of more than 20 books, whose father took part in the abortive German revolution of 1848, was widely mentioned for President, a job with a bigger title but less power. He is head of the right-wing free Democrats.

Move Into Coalition
Christian Democrats and free Democrats moved quickly toward a coalition to govern 47,000,000 Germans following a complete count of the Sunday vote in which 402 deputies were chosen for West Germany's first parliament.

The election proved a decisive setback for the communists, who gathered but 5.74 per cent of the vote, and two extreme nationalist parties—the German party and the German right party, who together got only 5.83 per cent.

Although the Social Democrats, who favored a program similar to the British Labor party, ran second with 29.4 per cent, they had no Socialist allies to whom they could turn to organize a coalition.

Germany's first freely elected government since Adolf Hitler thus appeared likely to set a course against Socialism, favor a free economy, align with the western powers in international politics, and seek entry into the family of European nations at Strasbourg.

Official Returns
The complete official returns included these results out of a total of 23,724,479 votes cast:

Party	Popular Votes	Seats
Christian Democrats	7,557,579	139
Social Democrats	6,932,272	131
Free Democrats	2,788,563	52
Communists	1,360,443	15

The remaining votes went to independent candidates and 11 other parties.

Adenauer, an aloof lawyer who was jailed three times by Hitler's Gestapo, is a devout Catholic. As chairman of the parliamentary council, he piloted the new West German constitution through the deliberations at Bonn. As chancellor, he would wield the real executive power of the government.

Heuss was a member of the Reichstag until ousted by the Nazis in 1933. One of his widely known books, "Study of Hitler," was translated into four languages — and burned in Germany by the Nazis.

Senate Confirms Bradley As Leader Of Chiefs Of Staff

Washington, Aug. 15—(AP)—The senate today confirmed General Omar Bradley in the new post of chairman of the joint chiefs of staff. It approved several high military appointments, all without opposition.

Bradley becomes the highest uniformed commander in the nation by selection for the post created under legislation unifying the armed services. The staff chiefs are heads of the three branches.

Other confirmations:
Tracy S. Voorhees of New York, undersecretary of the army.

Archibald S. Alexander of New Jersey, assistant secretary of the army.

General Joseph L. Collins, army chief of staff succeeding Bradley.

Admiral Louis E. Denfeld, chief of Naval operations for a second two year term starting Dec. 15.

SAY RED LEADER DEAD
Canton, Aug. 15—(AP)—The nationalists have "very reliable information" that Mao Tse-tung, China's No. 1 communist, died of tuberculosis July 17 in Peking, an army spokesman said today.

(The Nationalists had asserted Saturday that Mao was either dead or critically ill. Little credence was put in that report.)

Adenauer In Line To Be Chancellor

ITU Told Demands That Hike Costs Will Be Resisted

Okland, Calif., Aug. 15—(AP)—An employer spokesman warned the International Typographical Union today that any demands that will increase costs will be resisted firmly.

Speaking at the opening session of the ITU annual convention, Thomas P. Henry, Jr., of Detroit, said:

"You are going to meet resistance this year to any demand that will increase costs."

"And there is going to be a good economic report for the firm stand that employers will take. We suggest that you analyze this situation yourselves and that you temper your demands out of an appreciation of the situation which our industry faces."

Henry is president of the union employers section of the Printing Industry of America, Inc.

"I venture to say that no cost increases which occur at this time can be passed on at all," he continued. "If an attempt is made to pass them on, sales will be lost. Some companies will not be able to cut prices and the less efficient ones, as always, will have to cut back their operations sharply."

The new conciliator is Thomas J. Cleland, who has been with the federal mediation and conciliation service six years. He was called to take Plank's place when the latter died suddenly this morning at home.

Plank, 51, joined the service in 1944. His important cases included trucking, chemical, and metal fabricating industries. Death was attributed to a heart attack.

Cleland said he called the meeting between the two sides for tomorrow "to get my feet wet. Plank really worked himself to death, while I have to find out the situation."

Parties to the dispute are the major oil companies supplying gasoline to the city's 4,000 filling stations; and the AFL International teamsters who wheel the big tank rigs. The union has demanded a 17 1/2 cent wage boost on top of an average $1.77 an hour. The employers have countered with a 7 1/2

New Conciliator Takes Over Gas Strike In Chicago

Chicago, Aug. 15—(AP)—A new conciliator came into the Chicago gasoline drivers strike today following the death of Howard A. Plank and arranged a meeting between contenders for tomorrow afternoon.

The new conciliator is Thomas J. Cleland, who has been with the federal mediation and conciliation service six years. He was called to take Plank's place when the latter died suddenly this morning at home.

Good Deed Gives Man Cash In Head

Springfield, O., Aug. 15—(AP)—George E. Ebricht had eight stitches in his head today, and here was his explanation:

He and Charles Woodard were walking beside Mad river, looking for a fishing spot.

Woodard, who couldn't swim, fell in. Ebricht dived in to rescue him.

The water was only two feet deep. Ebricht's head struck a rock on the bottom of the stream and he suffered a severe cut.

Eight stitches were needed to close the wound.

DEFEAT AT THE POLLS DIDN'T END HOOVER'S PUBLIC LIFE

Herbert Hoover's attainment of his 75th birthday marks the finish of a long, useful public life for the former Republican president.

He made that milestone the final one himself. There's no telling what public chores might still fall to him were he willing to go on serving a little longer.

Hoover may well confound future historians, for he resists easy cataloging. His is a career of contradictions. In the years after his defeat in 1932 at the hands of the late President Roosevelt, Hoover probably was one of the most severely maligned chief executives in U. S. history. To listen to his Democratic detractors, one would have thought we had never seen a worse president. He became the symbol of the Great Depression.

Yet Historian Arthur M. Schlesinger reports that a poll of historians on the relative stature of American presidents placed Hoover in the "average" group rather than with the poor or below average. Only 10 were rated above average.

Hoover the depression president was the same man who had first touched the public imagination by his handling of world food and relief problems during and after World War I. In those days the label "humanitarian" was often attached to him. It was seldom used in the 1930's.

President Roosevelt did not see fit to make use of Hoover's evident talent for organizational problems. But President Truman did. He returned the aging Californian to public service in 1945 by ordering him to make a two-months' survey of famine-stricken peoples in Europe and elsewhere.

Then Mr. Truman chose Hoover to head a new commission on government reorganization. The Republicans' elder statesman pitched in to make the job his crowning, final public duty—a labor of love. For he believes strongly in the need for economies gained through streamlining the sprawling old federal government of today.

By now all America knows that the Hoover commission undertook the most gigantic reshaping of government agencies in world history. No matter in what degree its recommendations are carried out, it will have left its permanent mark on American life.

Thus Hoover has stamped his personality and character on the nation. But what has happened to him meantime? Did his humiliation in depression times scar him deeply? He would be less than human if it did not.

Still, the jobs he has since held in public service must have gone far toward compensating him. They are proof of his courage in rising above crushing defeat. They are proof, too, of a genuine desire for public service beyond any normal call of duty.

Best of all, Hoover has demonstrated what an ex-president can do if he is determined to be useful and not to be thrown into the discard.

'Little Blowhard'—He Can Weather Anything

New York—(AP)—Life has been a five days a heat wave gripped the breezy round of gaiety since "Little Blowhard" came to our house to stay.

The neighbors drop in unexpectedly. Lost friends from bygone years look us up and stay for an enchanted evening.

Yes, sir, the world has been making a beaten path to our doorway. And it's all because of "Little Blowhard." He's boomed our social year—unless its editors are overlooking us for pure spite.

Best of all, Hoover has demonstrated what an ex-president can do if he is determined to be useful and not to be thrown into the discard.

Services Held For
Fischbeck Infant

Roodhouse—Funeral services for Cynthia Ann Fischbeck, four-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Fischbeck of Mexico, Mo., were held Monday at 2:30 p.m. at the Mackey Funeral Home in Roodhouse. Rev. Frank Schwab was the officiating minister and burial was in Fernwood cemetery.

The infant died Sunday as the result of bronchial pneumonia. She was born on April 4, 1949. The mother is the former Eva Taylor. Surviving besides her parents are three brothers: Oliver, William, Sammy Jo and Frederick Wayne; a half sister, Annabel Marie; and her grandfather, Samuel T. Taylor of Roodhouse.

Roger Cannell Loses
First Heat By Inches;
Akron Boy Champion

SPECIAL TO JOURNAL COURIER

Akron, Ohio—Roger Cannell, racing in the National Soap Box Finals as an entry of the Jacksonville, Ill., Journal Courier, lost his first heat Sunday afternoon by half a wheel.

The Jacksonville boy was eliminated from the finals, from which Freddy Derks, 15 year old Akron boy, emerged as champion.

The heat in which Cannell raced was timed at 27.72 seconds, compared to the championship heat which was 27.15 seconds.

Cannell was the only Central Illinois entry in the finals. Last month he won the Jacksonville Derby, sponsored by the Journal Courier, Corn Belt Chevrolet Co., and Exchange club.

Although Cannell was beaten in his first heat, he will return to his home with numerous valuable gifts and the memory of a thrilling visit to Akron, during which he met a number of notables, including Jimmy Stewart, the movie actor. Stewart was marshal of the Derby parade Sunday.

All Illinois boys were eliminated during early heats. The only one to survive first round heats was defeated in the second round. He was Thomas G. Cain of Woodstock.

Besides Cannell other Illinois contestants were Donald Parrish, Paris; Charles Denny, Ottawa, and Raynor Coakes, Aurora.

BY FRITZ HOWELL
Akron, O., Aug. 14—(AP)—For the third time in the last five tries, an Akron entrant today wore the crown of All-American Soap Box Derby champion.

Racing Sunday over the national derby downs course where just last week he won the Akron district finals, 15-year-old Freddy Derks rolled his black walnut speedster to victory over 147 other entrants from 40 states, Panama, Canada, and Alaska.

The youngster, who carved the body of his mount from an 80-foot walnut tree, has a $5,000 college scholarship coming for his victory. He said he planned to study automotive design, but had not selected his college.

A crowd of upwards of 50,000 sat in intense heat along Derby Downs as the host of champions battled it out in 78 trials. The kids were sponsored by local newspapers. Several of the writers who accompanied them were emphatic in their suggestions that Akron refrain in the future from holding its district trials on the Derby Downs course.

Some said they thought familiarity with the tilted track gave the Akronites an advantage over the visitors who did not have so much time to get acquainted with the runway.

Derks won five heats in grabbing the championship, winning three in the first lane and one in each of the other two. He opened over the 934-foot incline with a 27.26-second performance, came back for three in a row with times of 27.22 seconds, and then winged in at 27.16 in the payoff event.

Second place, and a new Chevrolet automobile, went to 14-year-old Don Klepsch of Detroit, a ninth-grader.

Ruth Henry Long,
Former Resident
Of Morgan, Dies

Mrs. Ruth Henry Long, a former Jacksonville resident, died Aug. 12 at her home in Long Beach, Calif. She was born in this city in 1894, a daughter of Dr. Charles Cole Henry and Lida Smith Henry. The family lived in Wisconsin 20 years from where they moved to California.

The decedent was united in marriage in 1922 with Samuel P. Long, CPO, U. S. Navy. Mrs. Long was a charter member and first president of the Fleet Reserve Auxiliary, a member of the Episcopal church, and a leader in the organization and work of the Navy Family Chapel.

Surviving are her husband, Samuel P. Long, son, Cpl. Charles H. Long of the Army Air Force, stationed in Germany; her mother, residing in Long Beach; aunts, Mrs. Mary B. Curtis and Bess L. Gailey of Jacksonville.

Funeral services will be held at Long Beach, with entombment in Sunnyside mausoleum.

Arcadia Woman's Club Holds Fun
And Frolic Day

Fun and frolic day was held by the Arcadia Woman's club when the group was entertained at the home of Mrs. Tom Ruby near Scottville.

Dinner was served at noon, after which a short business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Iva Buck. Group singing was enjoyed and jokes were told in response to roll call. Games and contests were directed by Mrs. Bernida Rolfe.

The programs for the year were distributed and plans for the burgoop were completed. Mrs. Stella Orris was accepted as a new member.

Guests at the meeting included Mrs. Butler of Scottville, Mrs. Wilma McGinnis, Roscoe Goodpasture, Tom Perrier, Tom Ruby and several children.

Hurry! Hurry! Only 2 More Days!

PERSONALLY RECOMMENDED!

It isn't often that I recommend a motion picture as being "tops" simply because it is so difficult to please all tastes. However, once in a while a movie comes along that I feel sure will please EVERYONE... that's when I get myself out on a limb by making a money back guarantee if you are not thoroughly entertained. "You're My Everything" is just such a picture. Take my word for it... it's a grand entertainment... and the new child star Shari Robinson, is really wonderful.

3 Special Days Set Aside For Young Feeders

National Stock Yards, Ill., Aug. 13—Three special days have been set aside here next month for young feeders—Marketing Day events that will afford them an opportunity to sell fat stock and to participate in grading demonstrations and contests as well as other educational programs. The animals consigned for sale will be graded and grouped into uniform lots and sold as regular market stock.

The first of these events will be a Vocational Agriculture Marketing Day sponsored by allied interests at the Yards Thursday, Sept. 1. Future Farmers of America consigning cattle, hogs or lambs will be awarded ribbons for those animals grading choice and will receive special awards of $5.00 for each cattle grading choice, $1.00 for each hog of the choice grade and $1.00 for each sheep of the top classification.

In a judging contest to be participated in by the Vocational students, the following grades will be employed: Steers—prime, choice, good, fair, medium and common; Hogs—choice, good, medium and common; Pigs—choice, good, medium and common. Contest judges will consist of market buyers, with Ed Davis, Harry Decker, Tom Mullen and Joe Arnold making selections in the steers. Harry Nichols, Rollie Mays and Le-flore Harris, the hogs, and Bon Durham and John Dunsworth, the sheep. Lunch will be served starting at 11:30 a. m. (Daylight Saving Time) to all of those having entries. The day's activities will include tours through the Armour & Co. and Swift & Co. packing plants starting promptly after lunch. Radio broadcasting and recording will be made in the afternoon and awarding of plaques and medals will be made at 3:00 p. m.

Two special Marketing Days for 4-H Club boys and girls—a Baby Beef event Wednesday, Sept. 14, and a Hog Sale Thursday, Sept. 15—will be sponsored by the Producers Live Stock Marketing Association in cooperation with Club leaders. Frank H. Maynard of the Illinois 4-H Department will be in charge of the beef event and Robert S. Clough of the Missouri 4-H Department will be in charge of the Hog Marketing Day.

Recall Will Rogers Legend 14 Years After Death

By BOB THOMAS
(First of two articles on Will Rogers—man and legend. Today's concerns the legend.)

Hollywood, Aug. 15—(AP)—Fourteen years ago today, a small airplane nosed into the icy waters at Point Barrow, Alaska, carrying Will Rogers to his death.

Most American adults bear a memory of hearing that tragic news and fondly recall the grinning Oklahoma man who made the nation laugh. With the years he is fast growing into a U. S. legend.

Hollywood, where he worked and lived in his last years, recalls him as sometimes shrewd, sometimes humble, but always Will Rogers.

He claimed his epitaph could be "I never met a man I didn't like." But, says a former co-worker, "he had no use for phones, and could spot 'em a mile away."

Earned Fortune Quickly
He played polo and earned $3,500,000 in eight years from movies alone, but he maintained the common touch that was his trade mark. His favorite costume was blue denim pants, a leather jacket and sloppy hat. Concerning his grammar, he said:

"Maybe ain't ain't so correct, but I notice that lots of folks who ain't using 'ain't ain't eatin'."

He was a great kiddier, but no practical joker on movie sets. Once he was given a dinner by his fellow workers, who joked that Stepin Fetchit stole the Rogers pictures.

"Maybe so," he answered, "but I got a canyon out in the Santa Monica mountains that was paid for with pictures that Fetchit stole from me."

Helped Young Talent
Joel McCrea recalls that Rogers gave him his first big role, as son to the humorist in a picture. On location at Lake Tahoe, the young actor was playing his first scene with Rogers, but never could hear the right cue. Rogers took him aside.

"Look, young fella," he said, "this here is a pretty good script, but sometimes I find ways to improve it. Tell you what I'll do—every time I'm through talkin', I'll give you a nudge."

That's the way the picture was made: McCrea was poked before every line he spoke.

Few people ever topped Rogers. Studio boss Winfield Sheehan was one. The humorist was making $200,000 per picture and thought he should choose his stories, like other stars. He told Sheehan so, and the wily Irishman agreed.

Next day a truckful of scripts was delivered to the Rogers ranch. Will gazed at the stacks and figured he'd stick to the old system.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt also stumped Will once. At a White House lunch, FDR said he had a "paying and patriotic job" for him. Rogers asked if the president was firing "some of the brain trust boys."

"No," was the answer. "I'm going to appoint you to collect the foreign war debts—and pay you on a commission basis."

No one has replaced Will Rogers. Radio, with its boff, bang and zowie type of comedy seems to have killed off the kind of humor supplied by men like Mark Twain and Rogers. There is no one to match such Rogers quips as:

"I might have gone to West Point, but I was too proud to speak to a congressman."

"Communism to me is one-third practice and two-thirds explanation."

"Mexican president stopped gambling in Tia Juana and the whole town is left unemployed. It's just like they stopped lobbying in Washington."

(Tomorrow: Will Rogers the man.)

Charges Breach Of Agreement; Sues For $2,000

James L. Allen has brought suit against Dorothy and Frank Nunes in circuit court, charging breach of an oral agreement as to the erection of a six room house, and asking $2,000 damages.

Allen alleged in the suit that he entered into an agreement with the Nunes couple by which he would provide half of the funds and materials, and do the work in building a house on property of the defendants. He was to receive in return, he said, free rent of the house and adjacent farming tract for two years. Allen charges that the defendants refused him the right to occupy the property.

The plaintiff is represented by Attorneys Edward J. Flynn and Harry Story.

Annie B. Edwards Of White Hall Dies Here Sunday

White Hall—Mrs. Annie Benear Edwards died Sunday at 7:10 p. m. at Passavant hospital, where she had been a patient only a few hours. Death followed a brief illness.

Mrs. Edwards was born southwest of White Hall on Oct. 6, 1876. Most of her life was spent near White Hall.

Surviving are a son, Alden of White Hall; a daughter, Helen of Norman, Okla.; two grandsons, Paul E. and John H.; two great grandchildren; and two sisters, Mrs. George Rafferty and Mary Benear, both of White Hall.

A son, Kenneth, and a sister, Lizzie, preceded her in death. The body is at the Dawdy Funeral Home, where services will be held Tuesday at 2:30 p. m., with Rev. Charles Vandettum officiating. Burial will be in the White Hall cemetery.

AT PRODUCERS DAIRY

A fire alarm was turned in from the Producers Dairy on West Beecher avenue at 4:40 o'clock Monday morning, when smoke was detected in the building. Firemen made an inspection of the dairy and decided that the smoke probably had been thrown off from motors. There was no damage either to the machinery or building.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

Chicago, Aug. 15.—(P)—Prices on hogs lost 50 cents to $1.00 a hundred pounds today but cattle were steady to 25 cents higher and sheep were generally steady.

Best price on butcher type barrows and gilts was $22.00, paid but sparingly. Most sold from $19.50 to $21.75 though a few heavies got down to $17.00. Sows took $15.00 to $19.00 and a top of $19.50. Odd head were as low as $12.50.

High-choice steers topped at $28.75 and choice heifers at $27.75, while most good and choice steers and yearlings sold from $25.50 to $28.25 and heifers from $25.50 to $27.50. Good cows topped at $18.50, sausage bulls at $21.00, and vealers at $25.85. Stockers and feeders were considered fully steady to 50 cents higher with good to choice steer calves fetching $28.85.

A top price of $23.50 was paid sparingly for native lambs, most medium to good kinds taking $22.00 to $23.00. Yearling wethers topped at $19.50 and ewes at $9.00. Receipts for sale included 9,000 hogs, 13,000 cattle, 400 calves, and 1,500 sheep.

GRAINS MAKE TIMID RALLY; LOSSES REDUCE

Chicago, August 15.—(P)—Grains made a timid rally in the last hour on the board of trade today. The rally reduced losses which had extended to around 2 cents in corn during the morning.

Soybeans and hard did best on the recovery move. Both went ahead of Saturday's closing prices. Dealings were only moderately active in all.

Grains were sold at the start on a fair-sized run of cash corn here today. The rally started following news that some corn had been cleared out of local elevators, making a little more room for the new crop.

THEY "GET THE SACK"—AND LIKE IT—The men who operate the hay baler on Walser Hahn's farm near Jefferson City, Mo., complained about the heat and dust. So Hahn's son, Herbert, solved the problem with the ingenious air-conditioning device above. The mobile unit consists of a blower operated from the hay baler by a V-belt. The workers put sacks, with transparent plastic windows, over their heads and work in air-cooled comfort.

Receipts were: wheat 27 cars, corn 189, oats 40, rye 16, barley 52, soybeans 71.

A penny for Casey Stengel's thoughts today as once again the manager of the New York Yankees feels the hot breath of the oncoming Boston Red Sox on the back of his neck.

Wasn't it just seven weeks ago that Stengel wrote off the Red Sox? "This is it," he exclaimed jubilantly on July 4 after the Yankees had whipped the Sox for the fifth straight time "the Red Sox won't bother us any more. We knocked them right out of the race. They'll never recover."

And who would say that Casey was wrong? Those dark days for Ted Williams and company. They had suffered eight defeats in a row. They were wallowing in fifth place. The Yankees were 12 full games away, and it appeared only a miracle could pull them back. Why, the Red Sox would be lucky to finish in the first division.

Today, exactly seven weeks later, the Red Sox, in an amazing comeback, have made up two thirds of the ground on the Yankees. Now in second place, they've picked up eight games and trail by only four. Oddly enough, there are exactly seven weeks left in the playing schedule.

It doesn't take a certified public accountant to figure out the pennant winner, should the Sox repeat their last seven weeks' work.

The Sox, piling up 24 hits and 18 bases on balls, overpowered the Washington Senators twice yesterday, 9-3 and 13-4, to pick up another game on the Yankees. Stengel's crew whipped Philadelphia, 4-2, but the Athletics came back to win the second game of the doubleheader, 4-3.

The twin triumph gave the Red Sox a record of 32 victories in 41 games since that fateful July 4. They've now won 18 of 22 in their latest home stand. Five in a row have come at the expense of the Senators, whom they met 10 more times. In one, they hold an 8-3 lead after six innings. The game will be completed later this week. Boston also has seven games left with the Yankees.

Dodgers Regain Lead
The Brooklyn Dodgers regained the lead from St. Louis in the tight National league race, winning from Boston, 7-2 while Pittsburgh was trouncing the Cardinals, 4-0. This turn of event put the Brooks one game in front of the Redbirds.

The third place New York Giants remained 12 full games off the pace despite their two victories over the Philadelphia Phils, 8-1 and 1-0. The Cincinnati Reds came out on top in the battle of the cellarites, Chicago Cubs, 4-2 and 6-0.

Lefty Mel Barnett turned in his 18th triumph for the Boston Red Sox with a seven-hitter in the opener against Washington. Don DiMaggio sparked the Red Sox with a home run and two singles.

Junior Stephens hit his 31st home run in the second game with two mates on base to help Jack Kramer beat the Senator's Paul Calvert. Alex Kellner scored his fourth victory over the Yankees and his 15th of the season as the Athletics beat the league leader for a split of the doubleheader. Bob Porterfield, aided by Joe Page, was credited with winning the opener for the Yankees.

The fourth place Detroit Tigers moved to within eight and a half games off the pace, downing the St. Louis Browns twice, 6-2 and 4-3. Fred Hutchinson coasted to his 11th victory and his sixth straight with a six-hitter in the opener. George Kell paced the Tigers with a double and triple to drive in three runs.

Red Sox Beat Nats 3-2 In 11th Inning

Boston, Aug. 15.—(P)—Ted Williams singled in Dom DiMaggio with two out in the 11th inning to give the Boston Red Sox a 3-2 win over the Washington Senators and a six-game sweep tonight before a 30,619 crowd. Joe Dobson had a two hit shut out for the Sox until the ninth.

The luckless Senators, now have lost 29 of their last 33.

Sid Hudson was the losing pitcher. The extra-inning triumph, the sixth the Red Sox have gained after going overtime 11 times this season, enabled them to close their home stand with 19 wins against four losses.

Coca Cola Jrs. Squires Win In Jr. Softball Meet

The elimination tournament of the junior softball league got off to a fast start at the Northside diamond last night. In the National League, the top-rated Coca Cola nine managed to edge out a fighting Lane's Book Store squad by a 7 to 4 count. In the American League playoffs the league leading Moose Jrs. were knocked off in a thrilling 6-5 contest.

The first game of the evening was hard fought with both teams on about even terms until the fifth inning when the "Cokes" turned two hits and two errors into a 3-run rally. After this frame they were never headed, but the Lane's club was never out of the ball game until the final inning was over.

The second game saw a fighting Squires squad overcome the differences in the league standings and defeat the Moose Jrs. The Squires started their upset with a 4-run second inning off two hits and three passes by the Moose hurler. The Squires completed their scoring with a two-run outburst in the 4th.

The Moose Jrs. nine showed why they were tops in their league with a determined bid for a win. They scored once in the second and fourth innings and then tallied 3 times in the fifth to come within one run of Squires, but that one tally was enough to set them down.

In tonight's games Roy Saviour's meets the Trinity Boys club at 7:15 and at 8:45 the Amvets battle the Flamingo club nine.

Forecast Of Bad Weather May Stop Channel Swimmer

Dover, Eng., Aug. 15.—(P)—A forecast of fresh winds and rain stopped one English channel swimmer tonight and dimmed hope that Shirley May France would go out tomorrow.

Philip Mickman, 18-year-old English schoolboy, was all set to cross to France at 6 p.m. for the swim back when a last minute forecast blew up his plans.

The air ministry expects light winds and seas until midday tomorrow, followed by fresh northerly winds of 10 to 15 miles per hour. An incoming cold air stream may bring rain.

Earlier, Ted Wornor, manager of Shirley May, had ruled out a try by the 17-year-old high school girl from Somerset, Mass.

"We are in no hurry to make a false start," Wornor declared. "This girl will go when the weather is perfect. She will swim her heart out to get across and we want her to have the best help from nature."

Pirates Overcome Cincinnati 9-7

Cincinnati, Aug. 15.—(P)—The Pittsburgh Pirates overtook Cincinnati with a four-run sixth inning tonight and then went on to defeat the Reds 9-7 before a crowd of 11,371.

Rip Sewell, who took over from Starter Bill Werle during a fifth-inning Redleg uprising, gained credit for his sixth victory as against one defeat.

Ralph Kiner got the Pirate scoring under way in the opening frame when he clubbed his 32nd homer with Johnny Hopp aboard.

Pittsburgh added another in the second but the Red counted one in the fourth and then climbed on Werle for four runs in the fifth. Danny Litwiler's three-run homer was the big blow and Sewell took over.

The Pirates bounced back in the sixth, counting four times on five singles and an error.

White Sox Blank Brownies 8 To 0

St. Louis, Aug. 15.—(P)—Lefty Bill Wight blanked the St. Louis Browns with two hits tonight while the Chicago White Sox combined timely hits with Cliff Fagan's wildness to register an 8 to 0 victory before a sparse crowd of 2,000 fans.

Fannin dueled Wight on even terms for five innings but his wildness finally caught up with him in the sixth when the Windy City outfit pushed over five runs.

Dave Philley opened the inning with a single and Fannin handed out four passes to force in two runs. Floyd Baker singled across two more. Fannin made his exit in favor of Red Embree and Herb Adams singled for the final tally.

MINE STRIKE ENDS

Elkville, Ill., Aug. 15.—(P)—Two week strike of 350 men ended today at the Truax Tractor Coal company's Burning Star mine here. Superintendent Fred Huff said that work was resumed under the same conditions that prevailed when the strike began.

U.S. Picks Team To Defend Davis Cup From Australians

Rey, N.Y., Aug. 15.—(P)—The United States today picked a four-man Davis cup team to defend the International Tennis trophy against an Australian squad which showed its muscles by completing a 5-0 sweep over the Italians in the inter-zone final.

Even as the Italians were winding up their rout at the Westchester Country club here, the U.S. Lawn Tennis association announced in New York that this would be the American lineup in the challenge round at Forest Hills, Aug. 26-28.

Richard "Pancho" Gonzales of Los Angeles, U.S. Singles champion; Ted Schroeder of La Crescenta, Calif., Wimbledon titleholder; Bill Talbot of New York and Gardner Mulloy of Coral Gables, Fla., national doubles champions.

Australia's Billy Sidwell probably clinched a singles berth in the payoff struggle against the Americans by the brilliant manner in which he swept aside Marcello Del Bello, 6-1, 6-1, 6-0, today. He needed only 50 minutes to wrap it up.

Frank Sedgman, the 22-year-old Australian champion, started off differently and then turned on the full fury of his big game to drive Gianni Cuculli, the Italian ace, from the court under a hurricane of placements, 1-6, 6-1, 6-2, 6-2.

There are only four members of the Australian squad—Sedgman, Sidwell, John Bromwich and George Worthington.

The veteran Bromwich, despite his excellent play in the doubles against Italy yesterday, implied strongly today that he still has little interest in playing singles in the challenge round. He is tired and off his game.

Walcott Helping Charles Become World Champion

New York, Aug. 15.—(P)—It appeared today that Ezzard Charles, whose hope for universal recognition as heavyweight champion rests on his ability to eliminate all possible challengers, could do worse than hire Jersey Walcott as an assistant eliminator.

The venerable Jersey Joe effectively put Sweden's Olle Tandberg into the also-ran ranks with a five-round knockout in Stockholm last night, thus making one less chore for Ezzard.

Walcott's victory over the so-so Swedish fighter really did little to alter the heavyweight picture, except possibly to strengthen his hope that he might qualify for a return bout with the partly-crowned Charles.

Tandberg was slightly less than a bargain in his lone appearance in New York, so the critics are inclined to view Jersey Joe's victory without excitement. The large loss to Joey Maxim on that occasion.

Walcott, his pockets lined with an estimated 15,000 Swedish Kronor, or 41,670 in American dollars, as a result of the fight, expressed his willingness to meet any heavyweight, including the winner of the Lee Savold-Bruce Woodcock encounter when, or if, it is held in London. He is particularly anxious for another shot at Charles.

Athletics Drop N.Y. Yankees 9-5

Philadelphia, Aug. 15.—(P)—A five run sixth inning rally gained the Philadelphia Athletics a 9-5 victory tonight over New York's Yankees as right-hander Carl Scheib picked up his fourth straight pitching decision.

The defeat shaved New York's American league lead to three games over the second place Boston Red Sox.

The victory gave the Athletics the last two of the five-game series with the league leaders. It came at the expense of relief pitcher Duane Pillette, who relieved Ed Lopat in the sixth with a one-run advantage.

Mike Guerra opened the sixth inning uprising with a double. Ed Joost's single scored the Philadelphia catcher. Then with the bases loaded, Ferris Fain came through with a two-run single. Sam Chapman followed with a double that was good for two more runs.

Indians Defeat Detroit 4 To 3

Cleveland, Aug. 15.—(P)—Pinch hitter Hal Peck socked a bases loaded single in the 10th inning tonight and handed Bob Feller a 4 to 3 victory over the Detroit Tigers. It was the Cleveland fireballer's sixth straight win.

Hurling against Hal Newhouse before 44,510, Feller ended the ninth inning with a 2-1 margin. But in that frame he walked Dick Wakefield and Vic Wertz put the Tigers in front with his 13th home run over the fence in right field.

In Cleveland's half of the ninth, Right Fielder Bob Kennedy slammed a home run over the fence in left to tie up the game. Peck batted for Johnny Berardino and ended the game with his single that scored Larry Doby.

New Uniforms To Go To Navy Men

Washington, Aug. 15.—(P)—Navy enlisted men can look forward to some improvements in their dress uniforms by mid-1952.

The new uniform will have hip and side pockets, instead of just the tiny watch pocket in the present uniform. And the drop front will be replaced with a zipper.

Bell bottom trousers will be retained in the new style.

The jumper will have coat style sleeves instead of the tight button cuff of the present jumpers.

Although the Navy already has begun manufacture of the new uniform at its Brooklyn clothing depot, the new model won't be authorized for wear until July 1, 1952.

It is a 60,466,175 to one chance that you can turn up a seven on the dice 10 times in succession.

Jackie Robinson Is Best Man At Plate In Majors

New York, Aug. 15.—(P)—Showing no signs of weakening under the strain of a light pennant race, Brooklyn's classy Jackie Robinson continues to dominate the National league batting picture with leadership in four departments.

The Dodger second baseman added two points to his average the past week to boost it to a smart .364, 34 points better than that compiled by Enos Slaughter of the Cardinals, in second place with .330.

Robinson also led in runs batted in with 94; in hits with 156, and in triples with nine. He also was second in runs scored with 91, his teammate, Peeewe Reese, leading in that department with 96.

Only in doubles and home runs was Jackie not No. 1 or No. 2. The doubles leadership is held by the sturdy Stan Musial of the Cardinals, with 29, and Ralph Kiner of the Pittsburgh Pirates appears well on his way to the league home run crown with 31 to his credit to date.

Musial, incidentally, continued to climb in the batting ranks after his slow start. In seventh place a week ago, he added two points the past week to bring his average to .315, good for fourth place.

Although he lost four points during the week, Red Schoendienst of the Cardinals took over third place with his .317 average as Willard Marshall of the Giants slipped from .322 to .313.

Others in the top ten are Bobby Thomson of the Giants, fifth with .314; Gil Hodges of Brooklyn, seventh with .311; Whitely Lockman of the Giants, eighth with .310; Kiner ninth with .308 and Sid Gordon of the Giants tenth with .304.

Supplementing his batting honors, Robinson also had stolen 28 bases, 11 more than Reese, his nearest rival.

Ralph Branca and Preacher Roe, both of Brooklyn, took over the pitching leadership, each with a .750 mark; Branca has won 12 and lost four and Roe has won nine and lost three. Rip Sewell of Pittsburgh was the leader a week ago.

Warren Spahn of the Braves and Don Newcombe of the Dodgers are continuing their torrid race for strikeouts honors, with Spahn clinging to his lead with 96. Newcombe has 91.

Cards Beat Cubs 5 To 2 To Gain On Idle Dodgers

Chicago, Aug. 15.—(P)—The St. Louis Cardinals whittled the idle Brooklyn Dodgers' first-place lead in the National League race to a half game here today when they whipped the Chicago Cubs, 5 to 2, before a crowd of 19,754.

Harry "The Cat" Brecheen throttled the Cubs by scattering six hits for his 10th triumph of the season. He also contributed three hits with a double and a pair of safe bunts.

The Cardinals collected a dozen blows, including Stan Musial's 20th homer. It was an inside-the-park blow down the left field line that caromed around in the corner. Hank Sauer injured his left wrist colliding with the wall while he charged the ball.

The hitting of the St. Louisians was far from timely. Bob Chipman, Dewey Adkins and Bob Muncief generally added seven walks to the barrage of hits. But the Cardinals left a dozen stranded on the bases.

Tommy Glaviano singled, moved up on Brecheen's safe bunt and counted on Roy Smalley's error in the third inning. Brecheen followed him across on a single by "Nippy" Jones. Glaviano and Brecheen both bunted safely in the fourth and the former tallied on a wild pitch.

Musial's homer and a triple by Jones set up the final two runs in the fifth that routed Chipman for his eighth loss of the season.

Only one run off Brecheen was earned. Sauer's single and errors by Glaviano and Marion handed the Cubs one in the fourth. Herm Reich doubled and Mickey Owen singled for the other in the eighth. It was the first earned run for the Cubs in 32 innings.

Tennis Tourney Will Not Be Held

The Journal Courier tennis tournament manager announced Monday that there will be no tournament this year. It is hoped there will be one next summer.

Chief obstacle to this year's tournament is lack of entries in singles. Turnout for doubles is up to past tournaments.

Also certain technical difficulties made the tournament impractical at this time, the manager said.

Steps to the Moon

Copyright by Hillman-Curl, Inc.; Distributed by NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: Gaynel Teare, breadwinner of a once well-to-do family now reduced to moderate circumstances, has been expected by her family to marry Barry Bainbridge, a young millionaire. But when she meets an enterprising young man, new to the town, she falls in love with him. At last, Barry seems to have found the girl of his dreams. He wants to talk privately with Gaynel and takes her to the airport to look over a plane he intends to buy.

ON their way to the airport Gaynel did part of her unburdening. She told Barry about Emily's latest interim and how the Little Theater Movement, and its disciples, had practically taken over the entire house. It wasn't just the extra expenditures, and there were plenty of extras already, in spite of Emily's declaration that it would not cost one cent. But it was having so many people underfoot all the time, and the noise and the fact that the routine of the whole household was upset. There was too much work, as it was, for poor old Kobee.

"If only mother would consent to sell, and take a smaller place that we could keep up half decently," she said, though she knew that topic had been covered and argued a hundred times with no results. Mrs. Teare believed she would cease to exist, were she forced to give up the big house to which she had come as a bride. Even the suggestion of such a possibility brought on her worse case of nerves.

Barry did not feel that Gaynel's mother should give up her home, either.

He told her not to worry about this latest idea of her mother's. "It'll soon be gone—with the wind," he said. Like Denny, Barry did not take Mrs. Teare's newest fads seriously.

He said he did think Denny should be made to shoulder part of the responsibilities, since Gaynel's shoulders were much too slight and she wouldn't really allow anyone else to take it off her. "Denny's got the stuff," he said. "All he needs is the incentive to make him settle down."

He swung the car into the airport.

She smiled up at him, slipping an arm through his as they walked toward the hangar. It did help for all her independence, it was nice to have someone like Barry to lean upon.

"Oh, what a beauty!" she exclaimed, when Barry showed her the ship he was thinking of buying.

GAYNEL was as eager for a try-out as he. Barry was a splendid pilot. He used the craft for both business and pleasure trips.

"Do you mean to tell me you simply step on her and off she goes?" Gaynel asked. Her face was flushed with eager interest as Barry explained the complicated array of instruments on the dash.

"Why, I could learn to pilot a ship like this!"

Barry said, "That's a deal. I'll teach you this summer. Then you can fly to the moon whenever you like."

They soon were taxiing across the field. This was the part Gaynel liked best, as they gained momentum, the ship seeming to gather all her force beneath her, then that gradual, thrilling lift that left the earth dropping away from them.

"Like it?" Barry settled back, smiled at her.

"Love it!" Gaynel vowed. He felt her regard and turned his head. His eyes smiled into hers. His lips said, "I want you to know something, Gaynel. I can't think of anything better than to look at you for the rest of my life. That's what I want. And to shoulder all your burdens for all time. You know that, Gaynel; you've always known it, haven't you?" Her gaze dropped before the look that sprang into his. "Yes, I guess I have, Barry. Though at times I wasn't sure... you seemed to take me so much—for granted."

"I'd never do that! If I did give that impression, ever, I wouldn't deserve so much as one look at you, my dear." He gave his attention to the throttle for a moment, banking to circle back toward the port. "Aren't you going to give me an answer, Gaynel?"

So that was that. Barry had "actually" asked her, at last. Was she glad or sorry? She could not be sure. "Am I to understand," she took refuge by matching her tone to his, "that I have just received an honorable proposal of marriage from you, Mr. Bainbridge?"

"You have," Barry held up his hand in solemn oath. "If you wish, I'll have my lawyer draw it up in black-and-white with the necessary witnesses as to my requisites, Miss Teare."

"There is not much question as to the acceptability of your requisites, Mr. Bainbridge." They were both speaking as though the other were slightly deaf.

"I'll be honest with you," Gaynel said. "The requisites you mention make it difficult for me to give you that answer. They are so tremendous—and tempting."

He said quickly, "I didn't expect an answer right off the bat, my dear." But she knew that he covered a very keen disappointment, which proved he had taken her pretty much for granted, after all.

"You'll think it over, won't you?" "Of course I'll think it over," she said gently, all bantering gone from her face and tone. "I'll think it over very carefully, Barry darling. And I hope—truly I do—that the answer will be the one you want."

POLLED SHORTHORN PICNIC

Harold (right) and Marvin Duerwer, junior partners of George Duerwer & Sons, showed their junior herd bull Sunday at the annual picnic of the Western Illinois Polled Shorthorn breeders held on the Duerwer farm four miles north of Waverly Sunday.

Clarence Jokisch of Virginia was elected president. He succeeds Henry H. Meisner of Jerseyville. S. R. Samson of Petersburg was elected secretary and the group will meet on his farm for its sixth annual picnic on Oct. 20.

Two Brothers-Sisters Take Honors At Fair In Livestock Judging

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 15.—(AP)—Two brother-sister combinations grabbed the Illinois State Fair limelight today by taking high honors in livestock judging.

Janet Shoger, 16, of Oswego, and her brother, Dean, 12, edged out adult rivals to walk off with blue ribbons in open steer competition. Janet showed the champion Shorthorn and Dean the champion Hereford.

Janet's shorthorn, "Red," was selected last Saturday as grand champion in the junior department's baby beef division. With another animal, she took the top award in the 1948 baby beef show. James Ash, 15, of Harrisburg, and his sister, Nancy, 14, teamed up to capture the champion and reserve champion titles in junior department competition for purebred Herefords.

In another junior event, Betty Harter, 12, of Carlock, exhibited the champion Aberdeen-Angus steer, "Lucky," Neal Twitchell, 17, of Greenfield, had the champion Angus pure bred and Douglas Kim-

Bluffs Man Hurt As Motorcycle Strikes Culvert

Bluffs—Harold Baird, 27, was injured late Sunday afternoon when the motorcycle he was riding went out of control on route 100, about a mile north of Bluffs.

The motorcycle struck a culvert, jumped a couple fences and threw its rider into a garage on the Leroy Ford farm.

A passing motorist rendered assistance and Dr. O. H. Berry of Bluffs was called to the scene. Baird was taken to Our Saviour's hospital in the Bates ambulance.

He is believed to have sustained head injuries and possible internal injuries. His condition had not changed late Monday night. The attending physician is Dr. A. G. Wolfe.

Army Reserve Unit Will Hold Meeting Thursday Evening

Winchester—The 455th QM Service company, Winchester Army Reserve unit, will hold a meeting at 8 p.m. Thursday evening, August 18, in the Winchester Kiwanis hall. Captain L. K. Hubbard of White Hall, commanding officer, and Harold Switzer of Winchester will describe their activities at summer camp.

Both men attended camp at Camp McCoy, Wis., from July 9 through July 25. Hubbard attended with the 366th QM Battalion of Carlisle and Switzer with the 468th Field Artillery Group of Springfield.

Mrs. J. Ralph Peak was home from the State Fair Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Coultas of McAllen, Tex., are visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Boone Martin.

Mrs. Jean Coultas, a volunteer nurse working in Springfield, was home over the week end.

Mrs. Loretta Glossop arrived home recently after spending the summer in Normal, Ill.

Art Bricker of Hillview was a Winchester business visitor Monday. Ed Gray, formerly of Chicago, moved recently to the Otto Henry apartment.

Alvin Pierce Of Concord Weds Carol Walters

Concord—Alvin Pierce, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Pierce of Concord and Miss Carol Walters, daughter of Mr. John C. Walters of Jacksonville, R. 5, were united in marriage at the Methodist parsonage by Rev. Robert Pitsch on Thursday, August 11, at 2 p.m.

Members of the immediate families witnessed the ceremony.

Mr. Pierce is engaged in farming. They will be at home on a farm near Virginia, Ill.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kirchner on Saturday morning at two o'clock at Passavant Hospital. The infant has been named Emily Lou.

Peggy Wells has returned to her home after a short visit with her grandmother, Mrs. John Wells.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Miller attended the State Fair Sunday in Springfield.

caid, 16, of Palestine, the reserve champion.

The Water Cress farm of Northville, Mich., swept major awards in the Belgian stallion class as competition in horses got underway. One of the Water Cress entries, "Jan Parcour," was adjudged grand champion Belgian stallion for the fourth year in a row.

In the culinary department, champion cooks of yesterday, today and tomorrow were announced.

Mrs. George Noggle of Bloomington was the winner in the "Cooks of Yesterday" division, open to persons 70 or older. Mrs. Noggle earlier took first place for textile work by women in the same age bracket, showing a partitive quilt decorated with red, white and blue emblems.

Miss Opal Hayes of Franklin, who perennially ranks high among "Cooks of Today"—age 20 through 69, amassed the high point total in this division.

The "Cooks of Tomorrow" championship was taken for the second consecutive year by Donna Dowson, 14, of Springfield.

It was "Flying Farmers Day" at the fair, and aid minded farm operators piloted their own planes in from widely scattered points in Illinois, Wisconsin, Indiana and Michigan.

Fair attendance for the first four days is off 30 to 50 per cent from a year ago, fair officials said. One big factor is polio quarantine in Springfield.

Fair officials estimated attendance today would hit between 35,000 and 40,000, giving a four day total of around 258,000. The total for the corresponding four days last year was an estimated 459,000.

The fair attendance figures always are estimated since there is no accurate count of the number of visitors. Attendance for the entire three days last year was placed at 1,192,000.

City Council Hires Manager For Water, Light Departments

George Coldeway, of Bloomington, who for a number of years has been in the employ of Fairbanks, Morse & Co., will on Sept. 15 become managing superintendent of Jacksonville's water and light departments.

The managing superintendent will have jurisdiction over the water and light plants and offices, with complete authority to hire, suspend or discharge personnel without regard to political considerations, according to the contract.

The council voted unanimously last night to engage the services of Mr. Coldeway, after the reading of a contract. His appointment was recommended by the water and light committees.

Under terms of the agreement, the managing superintendent will receive a salary of $500 per month and a flat allowance of $50 per month for automobile.

39 Years Old Coldeway, 39 years old, was selected from a field of several qualified engineers. He will be the first superintendent of the departments for several years, the job having been vacant since a citizens' committee was abolished by council action.

The motion to enter into a contract with Coldeway was introduced by Alderman Chumley of the light committee, seconded by Alderman Baker of the water committee. The contract is effective one year.

Clyde V. Sturdy and Richard Study appeared before the council with reference to erection of grain storage bins, scales and other buildings on their lots on North Webster avenue near the Washburn railroad, where they expect to put up facilities for the storage of nearly a half million bushels of grain. They sought clarification of zoning laws as applied to lots 45 and 46 in Duncan Grove addition, and after inspection of the zone maps were informed by the council that the property is already zoned for light industrial use, which conforms with their plans.

Clyde V. Sturdy told the council that several steel bins about 60 feet in height will be built on the property, which is served by a railroad siding. The site was once used as headquarters by the Coking Oil Co.

Present Petition A petition bearing the signatures of 32 citizens, requesting the "complete removal of the riding stables located on what is usually known as Cappe pasture, because it has become a public nuisance and has created conditions unhealthy to the entire neighborhood area," was read by City Clerk Phillips.

W. Carl Brune, who said he circulated the petition, spoke with reference to the alleged conditions around the riding stable, which is in the rear of his residence on North Church street. After some discussion the petition was referred to the city attorney.

A resolution by the finance committee to transfer $10,000 from the parking meter fund to the general fund, passed promptly, but it touched off a discussion of the city's persistent lack of ready cash. The motion to transfer the funds passed on motion of Alderman Haneline, seconded by Alderman Woods.

Alderman Chumley told the council that the time has come when means will have to be found for raising additional revenue. The cost of operating the various departments has more than doubled over a period of years, and the revenue has not kept pace. Another payment of tax money is not due from the sheriff's office until November. Meanwhile, the city will have to scrape to meet payrolls and other current obligations.

Study Financial Problem Mayor Hoagland said the financial problem of cities is being studied throughout the state and nation, and that many cities are resorting to various taxes. The state legislature had action-to-cities bills before it, but no action was taken to provide funds.

The mayor and Chumley agreed that the public demands good service from municipal departments, and probably would favor additional taxation rather than sacrifice efficiency of fire and police departments and other services upon which it depends.

Survey Report Read A report of a survey made by state engineers May 27 and July 28 at the two city sewage treatment plants was contained in a letter from C. W. Klassen, secretary of the Sanitary Water Board. The report stated that the maintenance and operation of both plants was considered satisfactory, but contained recommendations for two improvements which would contribute to safer operation.

The state engineers advised the installation of a motor driven air blower in the deep dry well at the south side disposal plant, to eliminate the danger of gases. A new walkway along the gas vent on the well of the Inhoff tank at the same plant was recommended.

Alderman Brune made a report on spraying activities in the business district last Friday night and Saturday morning, when the entire area was sprayed with DDT.

Repairs on the Myrtle street bridge were announced by Alderman Kelly.

Orleans Girl Remains In Serious Condition

Two young men and two girls were injured Sunday night at 9:30 o'clock, one seriously, when the automobile in which they were riding failed to make a turn at West Morton and Lincoln avenues, hit the ditch and turned over.

Most seriously injured is Billie Clemmons of Orleans. She has not regained consciousness since the accident. It is feared she is suffering from a concussion.

Mary Goveia, Jacksonville, who was admitted to the hospital as a patient was dismissed Monday.

Eural Hoffman, 1225 South 10th street, Springfield, driver of the 1939 Ford car, remained under treatment Monday at Our Saviour's hospital. His condition was reported to be satisfactory. The youth is 17 years old.

Hoffman complained of a chest injury, and X-ray examination is being made. Also in the car was Kenneth Richards.

Hoffman, who was unacquainted with the streets, is said to have misjudged the distance at the intersection. The car landed in a deep ditch. Cooney's ambulance conveyed the injured to Our Saviour's hospital where they were attended by Dr. Vincent Lenth and Dr. A. G. Wolfe.

One side of the automobile was badly smashed. It was towed to the Lukeman Motor Co. garage.

Several members of the city police department, sheriff's deputies and two state patrolmen were at the scene of the accident, helping the victims and directing traffic, which became heavy after the ambulance crossed the city with its siren sounding.

None Injured As 250 Men Escape Mine Fire

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 15.—(AP)—An underground fire sent dense smoke through Peabody Mine No. 59 north of Springfield today, forcing between 250 and 300 men to use emergency escape shafts. None of them was injured, a Peabody official said.

Mine spokesmen said the fire started when an electric coil engine jumped the rails and the cars smashed into a trolley line.

Walter Eadie, state mine director, said all the men reached safe areas and were evacuated three at a time. Most of them had been brought to the surface three hours after the fire broke out.

John T. Kelly, mine superintendent, and John Bressan, chief electrician, were cut off by the smoke for a short time but later reached safety.

The fire was brought under control an hour or so after it started at 1 p. m. (C.D.T.).

The mine is about two miles northeast of Springfield.

Governor Stevenson, who was attending the Illinois State fair, went to the scene when informed of the fire.

Eadie said the area where the fire occurred was three miles from the main entrance and 300 feet below ground. The air escape shafts are between one and two miles from the entrance.

The fire broke out an hour and a half before the regular day shift was to end.
